

Educational, Religious and Non-Profit Organizations

Educational, religious and other non-profit organizations have special organizational, tax, asset management and liability protection needs. Attorneys in our Educational, Religious and Non-Profit Organizations Practice assist clients to successfully manage these issues, while helping them fulfill their charitable missions.

Practice Focus

- Formation of non-profit corporations
- Application for tax exempt status
- Compliance with state filing regulations
- Management of assets, trusts and restricted funds
- Real estate tax exemption
- Employment issues and contracts
- Governance
- Conflict of interest policies
- Risk management
- Faculty tenure
- Student affairs
- Alumni affairs
- Athletic issues
- Immigration matters

Representative Matters

- Assisting religious organizations to form non-profit corporation and develop bylaws, and articles of agreement; advice concerning discipline and volunteer retention
- Litigating real estate tax exemption for religious organizations, camps, an environmental organization, and a major medical center
- Litigating governance dispute between educational institution and alumni
- Applying for federal tax exemption
- Providing direction to foreign non-profit concerning filing requirements under New Hampshire's charitable trust laws
- Assisting college in termination of employment of athletic coach
- Obtaining work and immigrant visas for educational, health care and other non-profit organizations

Members in this Practice Area

Todd C. Fahey (603)223-9144 tfahey@orr-reno.com
Attorney

John A. Malmberg (603)223-9125 jmalmberg@orr-reno.com

Orr&Reno

Attorney

Martha Van Oot
Attorney

(603)223-9156 mvanoot@orr-reno.com